

Module 3: lesson 2: Speech Delivery & practice :

Now, the time has come to deliver your information through speech.

Three objectives of Public Speaking are to

Inform, Persuade, Entertain

Types of Informative Speeches are:

1. Speeches about objects
2. Speeches about processes
3. Speeches about events
4. Speeches about concepts

At this point in the course, you should have already completed your speech outline, drafted your speech and determined the type of speech delivery. Next, you will practice delivering your speech.

Speaks at an appropriate rate and volume

- Speaks clearly and articulately (forms speech sounds crisply and distinctly)
- Pronounces words correctly

RECAP:

Public speaking introduction, Speech preparation, Synthesize the speech, Do's & Don'ts, Speech Delivery & practice .

Suggest Learn skills with help of a Trainer (Guru). Interactive live Online class with a Trainer.

Part I Practice :

For this activity, practice delivering your speech either in front of a small audience of friends or family or record a video of yourself.

Part II Discussion

In the discussion area below, post a summary of what you learned from practicing your speech and share your thoughts and feelings about practice with others in this course. What do you perceive as your greatest strengths /weaknesses?